

Why Wait Until December to Make Preparations for the Holidays?

Is it not reminder enough when the leaves are falling and the nights are growing cool that winter is coming and with it must come the Christmas season, the New Year and the thoughts that permeate every fireside?

Communicate with the National Baptist Publishing Board, 523 Second Avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn.

We can get you any book published in the United States and send it to your home address if you will send to us, telling us the name of the publisher. We supply you with Sunday-School literature, pastor's guides and church helps. We have twenty-three different song books of our own. Call and inspect them. We have books and productions from the leading authors in the United States.

We can furnish you with a Sewing Machine for your wife or your home.

We can seat your Church with pews upon installment terms, allowing you to pay one-third of the money cash and the balance at so much every three months.

We can sell you a pulpit suit upon installment terms, allowing you to pay $10.00 per month on the most beautiful pulpit suit ever offered. We can supply you with both the old style and new style communion set. We can supply organs, reed and pipe toned, for you Sunday-School and Church. We can put a piano in your home. We can supply a church bell for your edifice. We can furnish your pastor with a baptismal garment enabling him to preserve himself for his congregation.

In fact, whatever your wants may be in the church supply line, whether books, literature, or church supplies, you will have but to call upon us.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, WRITE THE

THE NATIONAL BAPTIST PUBLISHING BOARD

523 Second Avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn.